

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

FOR information concerning the WILLIAMSON and COBB FAMILIES, we are indebted to Hon. Joseph Williamson, of Belfast, Maine, Hon. William T. Davis, of Plymouth, Mass., Gustavus A. Hinckley, of Barnstable, Mass., Charles J. Hoadly, LL. D., State Librarian of Connecticut, James G. Batterson, and Prof. Franklin B. Dexter, of Yale University, for valuable assistance and use of manuscript records.

We have consulted Deane's "History of Scituate," and Otis's "Genealogical Notes of Barnstable Families," and have made a careful examination of the records of the colonies and towns where the families have resided. It is hoped that this article is as complete and accurate as it is possible to make it. Any persons noticing errors are requested to send a statement of them, with the proofs, to the compiler.

THE WILLIAMSON FAMILY.

AMONG the persons emigrating to America in the seventeenth century, as shown by the papers of the Public Record Office, London, we find —

MICHAEL WILLIAMSON, aged 30, who came in the "Planter," from the port of London, April 2, 1635, and was of the party which brought certificates from the minister of St. Albans, Hertfordshire.<sup>1</sup> He is probably the same man who later in that year was a landowner in Ipswich,<sup>2</sup> and between May, 1638, and November, 1639, became an inhabitant of "Nieu-Port," Rhode Island,<sup>3</sup> and was the husband of Anne Panckhurst.<sup>4</sup>

WILLIAM WILLIAMSON, aged 25, and Marie Williamson, aged 23, were among the passengers of the "Defence" which sailed from the port of London in July, 1635,<sup>5</sup> and we are unable to find any further trace of them.

ANN WILLIAMSON, aged 18, was a passenger in the "Hopewell," September 11, 1635,<sup>1</sup> but we know nothing more.

PAUL WILLIAMSON was a landowner in Ipswich in February, 1637,<sup>2</sup> but like many others his later history is lost.

On the Town Records of Marshfield, Massachusetts, under date of the 24th of June, 1649, it is recorded, —

"Luke Lilli at a Towne meeting held at Robert Wattermanes acknoledged to have sould to T<sup>Y</sup>MOTHIE WILLIAMSON all his upland formely graunted to him by the freemen of this Township & Also the meddow granted to him y<sup>t</sup> lieth with that p<sup>t</sup> graunted to John King & Thomas Chillingworth for and in consideration of ye sum —

"At the same time William Hales sold to Timothy Williamson all his upland meadow formerly granted him by the freemen of this township, in consideration of —"

"Att The sayd Townes meeting The Inhabitants Then p sent have concluded and agreed that The meeting house of The Towne shall be builded & set up upon The land of Timothy Williamson neare The Training place And the sayd Timothy Williamson and Joseph Rose which is now Tenant upō The sayd lands are willing To consent Thereto."

And probably because of his living near the meeting-house it is further recorded, —

"Marshfield ye 8th of November 1665.

"Att the sayd Townes meeting the have apointed Timothy williamson To make ye fire & keep ye meeting house clean for the following year & to have thirty shill : in ye towne Rate & that the say<sup>d</sup> Timothy shall pay his Rate out of ye sayd Summe when ye year is expired."

Among the "Names of such as stand propounded to take vp there Freedome" in Plymouth Colony, June 3, 1656,<sup>1</sup> is that of Timothy Williamson; and he was admitted a freeman just one year later.<sup>2</sup>

At the annual town meeting, held May 18, 1655, Timothy Williamson and John Philips were appointed "To be surveyors for This ensuing yeare." May 19, 1656, Timothy was appointed one of the constables, and in June, 1659, "pounder or pound-keeper."

At a General Court, held March 4, 1673-4, "Libertie is graunted by the Court vnto Timothy Williamson to keep an ordinary att Marshfeild for the entertainment of strangers for lodging, victualing, and drawing and selling of beer."<sup>3</sup>

TIMOTHY WILLIAMSON married, June 6, 1653, MARY HOWLAND, of Marshfield, probably daughter of Arthur Howland of that town.

Timothy Williamson was buried August 6, 1676, leaving as his last

<sup>1</sup> The Inventory of his estate was taken September 22, 1682, and shows property amounting to £51 12s. 04d. The Inventory was presented to the Court the following month by Arthur Howland, of Marshfield, whereupon

"This Court doth order the Estate of Timothy Williamson late deceased that it shall be devidid betweene ye said Williamson brethren and sisters according to y<sup>e</sup> order of Court in that Case made and provided, That is to say y<sup>e</sup> Eldest brother of y<sup>e</sup> said Timothy Williamsons shall have a double portion of y<sup>e</sup> said estate and all y<sup>e</sup> rest of his brethren and sisters to have a single part or portion, and that the said Eldest brother shall have all the lands of the said Williamson if he desier it, when he shall come of age rendring y<sup>e</sup> overplus of y<sup>e</sup> prise of y<sup>e</sup> sd lands to his brethren and sisters if any should hapen toward y<sup>e</sup> making up of there parts or portions as above said."

Plymouth Colony Records, Wills, vol. 4, part 2, p. 4.

CALEB WILLIAMSON, son of Timothy and Mary (Howland) Williamson, of Marshfield, Massachusetts, was born in that town, probably about March, 1661-2. On the Plymouth Colony Records, under date of "October last day 1682," it is recorded that "Arthur Howland is allowed and approved by the Court to be gaurdian to Caleb Williamson of Marshfield."

The settlement of the estate of his brother Timothy shows that the eldest brother was to have the land of said deceased "when he shall come of age."

On page 63, Vol. 1, Plymouth County Land Records, is a deed dated December 20, 1687, whereby Caleb Williamson, of the town of Barnstable, in consideration of £17, conveyed to John Sherman, of Marshfield, "my forty acres of vpland formerly granted by the Town of Marshfield to my father Timothy Williamson now deceased & by him left to my brother Timothy Williamson also Deceased & of Right Decended vnto me his eldest brother."

These entries prove that Caleb became twenty-one years old between October 31, 1682, and December 22, 1687, and therefore his age as inscribed on his monument is ten years too great.

Owing to the destruction by fire in 1827 of the Court and Land Records of Barnstable County, it is impossible to determine just when he left Marshfield; but on page 388, of Vol. 1, of the records of the town of Barnstable, it is recorded that "LIEUT CALEB WILLIAMSON and MARY COB were married 3 May 1687."

She was the eldest child of James and Sarah (Lewes) Cobb, of Barnstable, and was born November 26, 1664. May 16, 1688, Caleb purchased for £22 a house and twenty acres of land in the town of Middleborough, Plymouth

County. It is suspected that he resided in that town for a year or two after this date, and that his son William was born there; but the town records of Middleborough do not reveal anything on this point. This property he retained until April 5, 1710, when he sold it to Shubal Thompson of that town.

February 3, 1690-1, Caleb Williamson, of the town of Barnstable, sold for £20, "to my brother Nathan Williamson of Marshfield in the county of Plymouth All my Estate Right, title, Interest property claime or demand whatsoever that I now have or hereafter may have, or of Right ought to have in or unto all that the dwelling house, housing upland and meadow that were sometime the housing and lands of my said ffather Timothy Williamson deceased."

July 30, 1699, Mary, wife of Caleb Williamson, was admitted to full communion in the Congregational Church of Barnstable, and August 13 following, their children, William, Timothy, Ebenezer, Mary, Sarah, and Mercy, were baptized.

Caleb Williamson was appointed one of the townsmen of Barnstable at a meeting held November 29, 1699.

On page 116, of Vol. 114, of the Archives of the State of Massachusetts, we find the following: —

On page 91, of Vol. 4, of the Council Records of Massachusetts, we find this entry: —

“ Council held Oct 12, 1704. A muster roll of the foot company under command of Cap<sup>t</sup> Caleb Williamson in the late expedition into the Bay of Fundy, containing an account of wages for their service from the 2<sup>d</sup> of May 1704 to the 14th of Aug following being 15 weeks, &c. Warrant drawn on Treasurer for payment.”

On page 300, of Vol. 71, of the Massachusetts Archives, is a list of the —

“ Commissioned officers of the land forces on the intended expedition to Nova Scotia and L' Accadie disposed into two regiments with the number of soulders in each company at their first parade in Nantaskett. All the commissions bearing date the 23th of April 1707.”

“ First Regiment Colonel Fra Wainwright. 8th company 40 men Caleb Williamson Cap'n. Jon<sup>s</sup> Bassett Lieut. Shubal Gorem Ensign.”

On page 458, of Vol. 1, of the Land Records of Hartford, Connecticut, is a deed dated February 6th, 1707-8, from Samuel Gilbert, of the town of Colchester, in the Colony of Connecticut, to “Caleb Williamson of the Town of Barnstable in the County of Barnstable. In the province of the Massachusetts bay in New England aforesaid, Gent." conveying for —

"one hundred and Eighty pounds, Lawfull money of the Said Colony, all that my Messuage or Tenement with the Home Lott of Land Yards Gardens and Orchards thereunto belonging. Scituate Lying and being In the Town of Hartford aforesaid, Containing by Estimation about Two acres and an half acre, be the Same more or Less, and is bounded on the North or Northerly partly with the Street or Highway and partly with Land belonging to the heirs of John Mitchell dec<sup>d</sup> and partly with Land belonging to the heirs of my Late mother Mary Gilbert dec<sup>d</sup> and on the West with a Street or Highway and on the South with land belonging to Zachariah Sanford and on the East with a Chase Lane or with land belonging to John Pantry; and also all that my Orchard or Lott of Land Lying and being in Hartford aforesaid, part whereof I purchased of Richard Edwards and other part whereof was given & granted to me by the sd Town of Hartford. Containing by Estimation three Roods be the same more or Less, and is bounded on the North, and on the West with a Street or Highway on the South partly with the aforementioned, to be granted Homelott and partly with the Land of John Pantry and on the East with the House Lotts of Thomas and Mathew Cadwell and all and Singular the Barns Stables Shops Bakehouse and Ovens Outhouses Wells of Water fruit Trees Fences and all and Every the profits priviledges and appurtenances of the Same and the Reversion and Reversions Remainder and Remainders thereof and all the Estate, Right Title Interest possession Claim and demand whatsoever of me the said Sam<sup>l</sup> Gilbert of in or to the said messuage and premises hereby granted."

The highway mentioned as the western boundary of the first piece is Main Street. The property extended north from the present site of the First Universalist Church to, and including number 256 Main Street, in the brown stone block north of Grove Street. The northern boundary of both pieces on the highway includes, on State Street, the car-house of the Hartford Street Railway Company, and the American Hotel, extending on Central Row to a point west of Prospect Street. A portion of the Home Office building of the Travelers Insurance Company stands on land that was formerly the site of the Williamson Tavern. Caleb immediately removed to Hartford, as will be seen by the following:—

“A County Court Holden at Hartford for the County of Hartford March 2<sup>d</sup> Anno Dom̄ 1707–8, and continued by Several Adjournments unto the 9th day of the Same Month.

“This Court grants Lycense to Cap<sup>t</sup> Caleb Williamson to keep a publick and Com<sup>on</sup> Victualling house (at the dwelling house of Capt Samuell Gilbert which Said Williamson hath lately bought), in Hartford for the entertainement of Strangers, Travellers and others, and for retailing Strong drink, provided he shall give bond as the Law requires. And he gave bond accordingly March 2<sup>d</sup> 1707–8.”

The Court records show that this license was continued generally by annual renewals,—the last being in April, 1738.

On the records of the Superior Court for Hartford County, among the items of expense which are ordered paid at the close of the term, we quite often find, “to Capt Caleb Williamson for ye use of his house” or, “to Capt Caleb Williamson for house room. £1.–05.” As these entries appear at the close of the March session of court it is reasonable to believe that it was more comfortable to hold court in the Williamson Tavern than in the “court chamber in the meeting house.”

He was admitted to full communion in the First Church of Hartford June 1, 1712.

Caleb Williamson died December 24, 1738.

Mary (Cobb) Williamson, his wife, died December 16, 1737. They were buried in the graveyard adjoining the First Congregational (Centre) Church, Hartford. The inscriptions on their headstones being thus :—

SARAH WILLIAMSON (Caleb, Timothy), was born in Barnstable, Massachusetts, January 2, 1695. As a member of her father's family she removed to Hartford, Connecticut in 1708, where she married August 12, 1714, SAMUEL BARNARD of whose previous history nothing is known. The County Court records show that from April, 1722, to February, 1726, he was licensed to keep a tavern in Hartford; and later records show that he continued the business some years longer.

By the aid of the County and Superior Court records we learn that he was still a resident of Hartford in June, 1733, but from that time forward all trace of him is lost.

Sarah (Williamson) Barnard died January 10, 1725-6.

EBENEZER WILLIAMSON (Caleb, Timothy), was born in Barnstable, Massachusetts, April 4, 1697. He was eleven years old when his father removed to Hartford, Connecticut, which became his permanent residence. Ebenezer married, December 15, 1721, ANNE CADWELL whose precise date of birth and parentage is unknown. She was admitted to full communion in the First Church in Hartford, June 2, 1728, and Ebenezer on the 14 of February, 1729-30. Anne (Cadwell) Williamson died August 8, 1750, aged 49 years and 3 months. Ebenezer married, second, December 19, 1751, RACHEL (Butler) CADWELL, baptised April 29, 1711, daughter of John Butler of Hartford, and widow of Aaron Cadwell. On the death of his father, Ebenezer succeeded to the management of the Williamson tavern, obtaining a license therefor from the Hartford County Court in April, 1739. How long he carried on the business it has been impossible to determine.

THE COBB FAMILY. .

SAVAGE, in his "Genealogical Dictionary of New England," states that HENRY COBB became a resident of Plymouth, Massachusetts, about 1629. Upon what evidence this statement was based, it is now impossible to determine. The earliest mention of him at Plymouth, as shown by the records now extant, is in June, 1632, when his eldest son John was born there. His name appears in a tax list levied on the second of January, 1632-3, to raise money for "publicke use," — his proportion of the tax being £00 09s. 00d.; and he was taxed the same amount in a list levied one year later. He soon removed, and became one of the settlers of Scituate.

Dean's "History of Scituate," Massachusetts, page 9, states: —

"August 2d 1633, the settlers proceeded to lay out a regular village, allowing to no one more than four acres for a house lot, proposing to build a compact street 'for purpose of mutual defence.' This street they called 'Kent Street.' It led from the bridge, as it now lies at the Harbour, easterly to the third cliff. The first lot was the corner formed by 'Kent Street,' and the road which runs parallel with Satuit or Stony Brook; bounded by the ways North and East, by William Gillson's lot South or Southeast, and by the common land West. The front line on Kent Street was eight rods in length, the side line

'extending 80 rods up into the woodes.' This lot was assigned, to Edward Foster. The second lot on Kent Street of the same dimensions was assigned to William Gillson; the third to Henry Rowley; the fourth to Humphrey Turner; the fifth to Henry Cobb; the sixth to Anthony Annable."

Through the courtesy of Prof. Franklin B. Dexter, Assistant Librarian of Yale University, we have had the privilege of examining a copy made in 1769, by Ezra Stiles, D. D., of the early Church records of Scituate and Barnstable, kept by the first pastor, Rev. John Lothrop.<sup>1</sup> The records commence thus:—

Henry Cobb's residence at Scituate was of short duration, for in 1639 the pastor, Mr. Lothrop, and a large part of his congregation removed to Cape Cod, and settled the town of Barnstable; the date of the arrival being definitely stated by Parson Lothrop in his Church records, where, in recording the baptisms, he says, "Since our Comeing to Barnestable Octob 11. 1639." Cobb probably was one of this party; and certainly he was a resident at Barnstable the following April, as shown by an entry on the Church records under the heading, —

The Scituate Church Records show that—

“ Decemb 15 1635, our Brother Cobb was invested into the Office of a Deacon.”

On the Barnstable Church Records,—

“ Henry Cob & John Chipman were Chosen & ordained to bee ruling Elders of this same church & they were solemnly Invested wth Office upon ye 14 day of April Anno Dom 1670.”

He was one of the jury at the courts held at Plymouth June 4, September 3, December 3, and March 3, 1639, September 1, 1640, and March 2, 1640-1; at a court held at Yarmouth June 16, 1641; and at the courts held at Plymouth September 7, 1642, June 7, 1649, and June 6, 1650.

In October, 1643, he was appointed by the General Court one of the committee to provide places of defence for the Barnstable people, and in 1644-45-46 and 47, was one of the Committee (i. e., Selectman) of the Town.

He was a deputy from the town of Barnstable to the General Court at the June Sessions of 1652-59, and 1660, October, 1660, and the June Sessions of 1661 and 1662. In June, 1644, he was "licensed to draw wine" at Barnstable; and in June, 1664, among the persons "nominated to take up the Excise" were Henry Cobb and Nathaniel Bacon for Barnstable.

On page 1, of the first volume of Barnstable Town Records, under date of "The 15th of Octo<sup>r</sup> 1649," we find that it was "Ordered by ye Inhabitants That Henry Cob, Isaac Robinson, Thomas Lothrop, & Thomas Hinckley do peruse ye old Town Book & Record such material useful orders as they find therein jnto this Town Book and ye rest in ye old Book to be cancelled by them."

The records also show his frequent appointment by the town on various committees.

“Patience wife of Henrye Cobb buried May 4, 1648, the first that was buried in our new burying place by our Meeting House.”

He was married to his second wife, SARAH HINCKLEY, “by Mr Prince,” December 12, 1649. She was daughter of Samuel Hinckley, of Scituate and Barnstable, and sister of Thomas Hinckley, Governor of Plymouth Colony. We have not been able to ascertain the date of her death. She is believed to have been the Sarah Cobb on whose estate administration was granted by the Court at Plymouth, March 2, 1679-80, to Thomas Hinckley and Samuel Cobb, and they were ordered “to make distribution of the estate amongst the children, still haueing a special respect therein to the youngest children.”<sup>1</sup>

Henry Cobb died between February 22, 1678, and June 3, 1679, leaving the following: —

JAMES COBB, second child and second son of Henry and Patience (Hurst) Cobb, was born at Plymouth, January 14, 1634. His parents had already become residents of the young town of Scituate, and he was but six years old when they removed to Cape Cod, and were among the first settlers of the town of Barnstable, which was part of the territory set off in 1686 as the County of Barnstable. He was admitted an inhabitant of Barnstable October 3, 1662, and from that time was often appointed by his fellow-townsmen to positions of trust and responsibility.

James Cobb married, December 26, 1663, SARAH LEWES, born in Barnstable, February 2, 1643, where she was baptized February 11, 1643. She was daughter of George Lewes, of Scituate and Barnstable. The date of James Cobb's death is uncertain; but it was prior to December 27, 1695, when an inventory of his estate was taken.

Sarah (Lewes) Cobb, his widow, married, November 23, 1698, Jonathan Sparrow, of Eastham, who in his will, dated March 10, 1706-7, made this bequest: "Furthermore I give unto Sarah Williamson that lives along with my wife, One Ewe sheep and one lamb, to be delivered unto her Father to be improved for her."<sup>1</sup>

Sarah (Lewes) Cobb Sparrow died February 11, 1735, and was buried in the graveyard near the East Church in the town of Barnstable.<sup>1</sup>
